The main objection to Mr. Moring's proposition was that it was too dictatorial, and it was patent that its terms would certainly be rejected by the creditors, &c.

THE NORTH CAROLINA MEDICAL SOCIETY.—This body will meet in the city of Charlotte on the second Wednesday of May, and it is reasonably expected that it will be the largest assemblage of its character ever held in the State. Discussions on matters of vital importance to the profession by learned and skilled members of the Society, will be one of the prominent features of the Convention. This Convention, composed of all the leading and prominent physicians in the State, who meet in council for the purpose of comparing notes with regard to general practice, and devising ways and means for the promotion of the same, is one of great importance to the whole people, who should feel and take an interest in profession.

Mr. Stanford would consider the the Wilson Advance: We left about three o'clock, when

Mr. Turner was speaking. We heard only a part of his speech. His exposure of Radical crimes was very well done and the corruptions of that party were told with effect, and no doubt that part of his speech made a good impression on his hearers, but we must be allowed to say, that his allusions to the RALEIGH NEWS were in bad taste. He gave no good reason for coupling the name of that true and sterling Conservative paper missioners shall receive no compenwith the rings in any manner, shape or form. working majority in the new Parlia-The Grangers brag much much because Gov. Hendricks, of Indiana, belongs to them. Senator Sargent, of California, is afflicted with a wife who advocates female suffrage. Boys under 16 years of age are debarred by the laws of Carthage, Illinois, from using tobacco. United States Senator J. P. Jones, of Nevada, lives at Gold Hill, and is said to be worth $7,000,000. The Ashantee war is over, and the English troops will leave the Gold Coast for England on the first of March.

The Capitol building at Richmond. Va., is considered so unsafe that the least noise overhead stampedes the General Assembly from their halls.

The Baltimore papers announce the presence in that city of Zebulon B. Vance, He has been the guest of Dr. Thos. J. Boykin, of that city. Secretary Fish emphatically denies that there has been any "unpleasantness" between the Government of the United States and of Germany, as stated in the Paris Patrie. Says the Herald, New York has earned the appellation of the "City of Charities," and whole columns of that paper are filled with accounts of the sufferings of the poor upon whom the winter begins to bear hardly. Japan has $25,000,000 in her treasury. The surplus revenue of last year was nearly $5,000,000. This sounds queer to American people, whose National and State Treasuries always have balances on the wrong side. The Tribune thus sarcastically does it up: "It is discovered at Albany that the names of Wm. M.Tweed and Thos. C. Fields still remain on the list of persons designated to represent this State at the Centennial Exhibition. As both of these eminent characters have other and permanent engagements, to say nothing of their fitness for the place, it is necessary that the Commission be reorganized."

It is understood that a compromise has been effected between Gov. Mc-Cook, recently nominated by the President to be governor of Colorado, and those who have been opposing his confirmation. The basis of the agreement is said to be that Mc-Cook shall be confirmed by the Senate, and immediately thereafter resign. This course is insisted on by General McCook to vindicate in a measure the charges which have been made against him.

The good people of Richmond, Va., are agitated over the unsafe condition of many of the public buildings of that city. A cornice and some of the ceiling of the State Library in the Capital fell on Thursday, and created some consternation, the Legislators being at once reminded of the terrible disaster in that building of a few years back. The immediate removal of the books, documents, &c., was ordered.

THE closing proceedings of the Legislature occupy so much of our space and time that we cannot give that diversity of general reading matter which we hope to do as soon as that body shall adjourn. We shall more than 6 cents a year." Usury spare no efforts this Spring to make the NEWS thoroughly acceptable to the general reading public, and in the approaching campaign we hope to make its influence felt for the good of the principles we shall advocate, and for the party whose interests we shall endeavor to promote.

THE New York Tribune announces that a very large edition of The South, devoted exclusively to the interest of North Carolina, will be issued during the month of March. The edition will exceed 50,000 copies, will be the most effective publication ever made in the interest of this advice to Legislatures about to pass State, and will be illustrated with several pertinent engravingss representing the different interests of the State. Mr. WOODWARD, the Southern editor of this journal, has been for some time past writing up the State for this issue of the South, and we feel confident the North Carolina issue will be a valuable produc-

SENATOR BOUTWELL has embodied some of the results of his experience as Secretary of the Treasury in a bill history of the family, whose means to exact more careful estimates of the different departments of the Govstricter account for the appropriations given them. Whenever they ask for | number of erroneous statements that their annual supply of money, they must state how much they have on hand of preceding appropriations; every estimate for money for public buildings must be accompanied with a detailed statement of the whole cost of the work. It is declared unlawful for any department to spend more than has been appropriated to its use. And, finally, all unexpenbe covered into the Treasury on the 1st of June of every year.

THE Baltimore Gazette referring to the address of the National Grange, published in these columns yesterday, says: "The address of the National Grange, convened at St. Louis, puba remarkably strong document. It it should not be singular-it contains mon sense. The tone is familiar, while dignified, and is that of a body conscious of its strength. It ignores politics, but politicians had better keep out of its way. It is going to be a power. It is going to hold the palance in the next Presidential in the material form and the strength of t election. It has already partially revolutionized the West both industrially and politically. What we are rejoiced to see is that the address is without sectional jealousy or one word that can wound. Its advice to the South was drawn up by Southern men, and heartily endorsed by every member of the order. It sets forth as the true policy of the South just what every friend of that section has been urging upon it for years, and yet the South itself has been too dull to receive it. Raise home crops, not exclusively cotton, but corn, wheat, potatoes; feed hogs and cattle of all kinds; raise poultry where the negroes will allow it, and be free from dependence on others.'

The New York Tribune thus speaks

of the same resolutions: "The declaration of principles put forth by the National Grange, at St. Louis, is certainly a striking and able document. The aims and objects of the Patrons of Husbandry, as therein stated, are designed to harmonize capital and labor, promote the greatest good of the greatest number, and clothe the brotherhood with all the elements of the highest manhood and citizenship. If the Grangers will live up to this admirable declaration, they will confer a lasting benefit on the whole country.

THE question of usury has been agitating our Legislatures for several winters, with as yet no definite end attained. As this is a matter that affects almost every one, we reproduce the following well-written article from the Chicago Tribune, without, however, endorsing it fully, though in the main, it expresses our ideas. Says the Tribune:

"The Legislature is trying to find out what sort of a usury law it ought to pass. The best thing it can do is to repeal all existing acts on the subject, and let men buy and sell money, as they do other merchandise, without State interference. A loan of money differs in no respect from the loan of a house, the loan of a horse, the loan of furniture, of books, of a piano, or anything else, for hire. The possession of money gives the possessor the right to command anything in the market for sale. It has a wider range of command than a house, or a horse, or a piano, but in its nature, as an object of hire, is in no wise different. A law regulating interest concerns directly three parties—the borrower, the lender, and the State. It harms them all. Suppose the legal rate of interest is 6 per cent, and that money is worth 7. In such an event, the borrower cannot get a loan at 6, despite the law's commands. If the law is enforced, he cannot get a loan even at the fair rate of 7. For a capitalist must be indemnified for the risk of forfeiture incurred by lending money at rates above the legal limit. Interest always varies with risk. So the borrower must give not only what would be the rate were there no law, but something besides, to pay the lender for the danger involved in breaking the law. Such an actraises rate of interest in another way. By making it illegal to sell money at its full value, it drives capital to places where it can be freely employed. Thus the supply of loans is diminished, while the demand, remaining substantially unchanged, forces up the price. Such acts, then, though especially designed to make it easy for the poor to borrow, tend to put it entirely out of their power to do so. Usury laws clash with the interests of the lender because they fix an arbitrary maximum value on what he has to sell. With equal justice might the State say: "Beef shall never be sold for more than 5 cents a pound, or "The use of a piano shall never be sold for more than 2 cents a month,' and declare, as it does declare, "The use of a dollar shall never be sold for laws conflict with the true interests of the State, because they are foreign to its rightful functions, cannot be enforced, and so tend to bring all law into contempt. Since, then, such enactments, instead of lowering the cost of money, raise it; since they diminish the supply of loans and so tend to cripple business; since they press with especial hardship on the poor; since they practically confiscate part of the property of every money-owner by making it illegal for him to sell his property at the

I feel totally incapable of giving the intelligent writer such a reply as the falsehoods demand. I will give a true statement of their early lives, &c. They were born in May 1811, in a small town on the coast of Siam, and came to this country in 1829. a word of truth put forth in the assertions of the Snn concerning their courtship and marriage. They never spent a day in the school room for the purpose of study, yet they were educated and intelligent men; they could read and write very well, and transact all of their business with facility. Their wisdom did not consist of Greek and Latin, as I presume that of the learned correspondent of the Sun does, but in practical, common sense. Before they became afflicted, their intellects were much brighter. The families lived together ten years after they were married, and of course the children could not at all times agree, and this was and would be the constant source of trouble so long as the familes remained together. They were very even tempered themselves, and did not seem to be quarrelsome with each other, and no one but a donkey would, for a moment give credit to the atrocious lies concerning the fight in Barnum's museum. And in truth, instances of two large families being brought up in the same house in perfect love, peace and harmony are very rare, and this is the true cause of the families being separated. Chang had ten children and all of them are yet living except one of the daughters, who was thrown from a horse which resulted in her death I'wo of them are deaf mutes. Eng had eleven children. Seven are living; none of them are afflicted with deafness. The correspondent of the Sun charges them with being so rapacious that it prevented showmen from making any proposals to them. This is utterly untrue. They never exacted any thing great from their employers, and then if either side was favored their employers were the ones. More than one instance has occurred where their employers were unsuccessful, through bad management or otherwise. Then they would not exact their full wages. They were consid-ered by all who knew them to be generous hearted men, and the good people of Surry county will testify to Z. W. H. this fact.

Petersburg, Va., December 17th, 1873. To the Farmers and Guano Dealers of North Carolina and Virginia: Gentlemen: To the mary of you with whom I am personally acquainted, I would say, that of good results from GUANAHANI GUANO, I have not the shadow of a doubt. Containing, as it does, in such large amounts, the essentials for plant food, success from its application would seem certain. It being of animal origin, you will see at once that its ingredients must be all soluble in the soil. Its nitrogen, from nitric acid, is the most available form known to chemistry; the other part, from undecomposed animal matter, is preferable to the volatile salts in Peravian Guano. I ask of each of you the kindness of a thorough examination of the accompanying analyses by two of the great chem-

GUARANTEED ANALYSIS. Ammonia, from both Nitrogen and Nitric Acid... LETTER FROM PROF. WM. C. KERR, STATE GEOLOGIST OF NORTH CAROLINA: Raleigh, N. C., January 7th, 1874.

Wm. R. Griffith, Esq., General Agent Guanahani Guano Company, Petersburg, Virginia:
Dear Sir: Dr. F. A. Genth, whose Analysis of the Guanahani Guano you have shown me is Chemical Minerologist to the Geological Survey, and has no superior as a chemist. I have no hesitation in endorsing any analysis from his laboratory. And I think the analysis justifies his statement that the substance examined by him is a VALUABLE MANURE. MANURE.

From his report, and that of Prof. Wilson, it is evidently a TRUE GUANO, both in origin and composition, and its action on crops may be expected to be the same in kind and in degree proportioned to its relative per centage of the valuable ingredients—Phosphoric Acid, Ammonia and Potash, that of the first being unusually high.

Yours truly, W. C. KERR, State Geologist.

ANALYSES. The following analyses of different cargoes and samples by two of the leading chemists of the country, are given for the guidance of the public:

LETTER OF PROF. P. B. WILSON, LATE ASSISTANT OF BARON J. VON LIEBIG. CHEMICAL LABORATORY OF PROF. P. B. WILSON, No. 30 Second Street,

Baltimore, December 1st, 1873. MAJ. N. M. TANNOR, President Guanahani Guano Company, Petersburg, Va.: MAJ. N. M. TANNOR, President Guanahani Guano Company, Petersburg, Va.:

Dear Sir: I have drawn samples of the Guano, as it has arrived in cargo lots, and find it exceedingly uniform in the amount of Phosphoric Acid it contains, namely, from 15 to 19 per cent. This is combined with Lime, and is of animal origin, and readily assimilable by plants. It contains potential ammonia and nitric acid, having a combined Nitrogen value equal to from 2 to 3 per cent. of ammonia, with the alkalies Potash and Soda, and valuable proportions of Sulphate of Lime. The whole forming a very desirable combination for all crops, and when applied to land, the crop receiving proper tillage, must, in my opinion, give as good results as any guano offered to the farmer.

Being of animal origin, the organtic matter has undergone partial decomposition, and it accessarily contains a valuable amount of Humus, which makes its fertilizing power much greater than fertilizers which are compounded largely of Peruvian Guano, which, beyond its ammonia and small phosphatic value, has little or no power in absorbing from the atmosphere and retaining in the soil the movable elements absorbed by moisture and brought down by the rains, as the guano you are now placing upon the market. ture and brought down by the rains, as the guano you are now placing upon the market.

All of the components of this Guano are very soluble in the soil, and possess such physical properties as to render it at all times and ut der all circumstances as in mediately eventable plant food

The late samples you sent me for analysis, from the deposit which you inform me you need to ship from, show a decrease in the phosphatic value but a law inform me you intend to ship from, show a decrease in the phosphatic value, but a large increase in its nitrogen compounds. I think, however, from orevious observations of carçoes, that you may reasonably expect, that cargoes taken from where these samples were drawn, will materially improved in the saline compounds, (phosphates, alkalies and magnesia.

Respectfully, &c.,

UNIVERSITY OF PENNSYLVANIA, WEST PHILADELPHIA, 19th, 1878. Maj. N. M. Taannor, Petersburg, Va.,

DEAR SIR: In compliance with your request, I have analyzed sample of "Guanahani Guano," and have made additional examination of an average sample from a lot of 300 tons, the result of which, I beg to embrace in the following: The Guano is a brownish powder, with lumps of combinations of lime with Carboulc, Phosphoric and Nitric acids. It contains a considerable quantity of water (about 20 per cent.), and when dried is a paler brown powder. The Guano is evidently of animal origin, and the minute bones, which were discovered in the same, indicate that it is the result of the decay of bats, mice, &c. The quantity of origanic matter, which is still present, is about 12 per cent., and this yields about 2½ per cent. of ammonia. A portion of the nitrogen is present, as nitric acid, of which about 3 per cent. wa found. All the nitrogen present would be equivalent to about 3½ per cent. of ammonia. The phosphoric acid in the Guano, about 12½ per cent., equal to 27 3 per cent. of bone pho-phate. A considerable quantity of the phosphoric acid, however, is present, as so-called neutral phosphate of lime, which, being slightly soluble in water, renders the Guano as quick in its action, as a corresponding quantity of superphosphate would do. The small per centage of potash, which was found slightly soluble in water, renders the Guano as quick in its action, as a corresponding quantity of superphosphate would do. The small percentage of potash, which was found in the analysis, adds to its value.

From all the experiments which I have made of the Guanahani Guano, no doubt can exist that it is a valuable manure.

Yours truly,

F. A. GENTH.

I used your Guano on wheat last year, and consider it equal to any guano I ever the LEWIS SHUMATE.

Bethel Academ, Fauquier County, Va., November 12, 1878. E. A. DUNLAP, Esq.,

Dear Sir: If I could have made collections, I certainly would have used two tons of the Guano you sent me this fall.

I consider it better for wheat than any other Guano that has been used in this county

Respectfully yours, Baltimere, December, 1273. Mr. E. A. DUNLAP,

Dear Sir: The Guano purchased from , ou, was used upon cern by the side of one of the best ammoniated soluble phosphates in the market. The quality of the land was the same as was the quantity of guano and phosphate used. The corn where the Guane was used appeared to start sooner, and in the fall was fully ten inches higher and ripened earlier than where the Phosphate was used.

Very respectfully, &c.,

Late firm of Neale, Harris & Co., Commission Merchants.

We, the undersigned, have sold your Guano for two seasons. Those that have purchased are buying again, and are pleased with the results.

L. KELLUM & CO., 119 Hillen street, Baltimore.

Cheston, Near Queenstown, Md., August 18th, 1878.

E. T. Wroth, Esq., Baltimore, Md.,

Dear Sir: I have your favor of 4th inst., making inquiries as to the results from application of the Guano which you sent me last fail. I applied it at the rate of 170 pounds per acre—the same quantity as of the other fertilizers I was then using. The wheat throughout the field bore much the same general appearance, with perhaps something in favor of your Guano. The grain of my crop on that field wasgenerally of fine quality, and I cannot say that I observed any perceptible difference in its appearance.

The result in quantity, (the most important point.) I regret not to be able to give you. Threshing my crop by steam power, my attention was occupied at many points at the same time, and on one of these occasions this particular parcel of wheat was threshed before I was aware of it, and without any note of its comparative yield. I therefore cannot pronounce positively in its favor, over others; but, from its general appearance, I judge it quite equal to other standard fertilizers of established reputation.

Very respectfully yours,

WM. HENRY DECOURCY. Cheston, Near Queenstown, Md., August 13th, 1873.

Dear Sir: Yours of the 4th received and contents noticed. You must excuse me for not reporting to you sooner the result of the experiment with your Guano. I seeded it by the side of * * * * * 's Raw Bone Super-Phosphate, at the rate of 150 lbs. to the acre, of each. Whilst growing, I, nor any to whom I showed it, could not perceive the least difference. The yield was equally good—about 25 bushels to the acre. I consider it equally as good as * * * * * * 's, in every respect. Please inform me the price, as I intend using some on wheat this fall.

Very respectfully yours, Mount Airy, Carroll County, Md., November 13th, 1873. Moant Airy, Carroll County, Md., November 18th, 1878.

WM. R. Griffith, Esq., General Agent,
In reply to yours of the 12th, will say, the farmers can say but little, as yet, in regard to Guanahani Guano. But Maj. A. G. Davis, who used one bag, by the side of several other fertilizers, says, so far, the Guanahani looks better than any of the others. All parties say, so far, they can see no difference in their grain wherever it is up sufficient to judge. By the spring, I can give you a more satisfactory report. Hoping to have the pleasure of a visit from you, soon,
I am, truly yours,

I am, truly yours, P. S.-I have commenced making a stir for the Spring trade.

San Marino, Dinwiddie Co., Va., November 15th, 1873.

W. R. GRIFFITH, Esq.,

Dear Sir: Yours of the 12th inst., was received on yesterday, and, in compliance with your request, I hasten to reply. I purchased half ton of Guanahani Guano, from Messrs. Rowlett & Tannor, ist of October, 1873, to use upon my wheat crop, as an experiment. I applied it 200 lbs. per acre. The wheat was seeded from the 10th to the 17th of October I was very careful in the application, leaving two strips of land through the field; one of an acre, the other two acres. The one acre strip was manured with * Phosphate. The two acre strip was in tobacco, heavily manured with stable manure and   Tobacco Fertilizer. I also added a strip of very poor land (stubble) on one end, three-fifths of an acre. Upon this I applied 100 lbs. of Guanahani, and also moistened the wheat and rolled it in the Guano. (I mean the wheat sewn upon this three fifthes *rip.) The season has been favorable, and the young wheat is looking very well; and that upon the narrow strip of poor land, equally as good as upon the heavily manured tobacco land. I am satisfied hat the Guano is acting upon this strip of wheat, as the land was very poor. I do not think that it would be well for me to make a positive sertion just yet, bu' will carefully note the result and let you hear from me again.

Yours respectfully.

Kingston, Dinwiddle Co., Va., November 26th, 1873. Messrs. Rowlett & Tannor,
Dear Sirs: In reply to your inquiries in regard to the Gusnahani Guaue, which I purchased last summer, I can only say that I applied it on my wheat crop, sowing it broadcast and plowed it in with the wheat. So far, I am vary much pleased with the Guano. Where I used it, the wheat looks better than any I have seen, and my neighbors who have seen it, consider it so. I applied it the first of October, and it shows very plainly over the wheat where there was nothing used.

Very respectfully, [Note.—Mr. Mitchell has since ordered 10 tons for his Spring crops.] Millstone Landing, Md., December 1st, 1873.

Mr. E. A. DUNLAP,
Dear Sir: I am just in receipt of your letter, but regret that I did not receive it sooner.
I used your Guano side by side with * * * * * * * * Ammoniated Super-Phosphate, and could perceive no difference, only in growth of the straw. The straw from * * * * * * * rather the largest. The grass from it was equally as good, and I do not hesitate in recommending it to farmers as a reliable fer tilizer.

Very respectfully,

ELKANAH WISE ELKANAH WISE.

Dinwiddle County, Va., November 21st, 1873. Messrs. McIlwaine & Co., Petersburg, Va., Gentlemen: I used the Guanahani Guano, purchased of you, on wheat at the rate of 300 lbs. per acre, on corn land. The wheat is looking well. I think it will prove a good fertilizer.

Respectfully, A. M. ORGAIN. Sussex County, Va., December 12th, 1873.

Sussex County, Va., December 12th, 1878.

Messrs. Rowlett & Tannor, Petersburg, Va.,

Dear Sirs: I used on my wheat, sowed about the 1st of October, a half ton of Guanahani Guano, and so far I am very much pleased with its action. Where I used the Guanahani the wheat is looking remarkably well—a great deal better than the wheat Very respectfully,

A. G. JORDAN.

Prince George County, Va., December 16th, 1873, Messrs, Bishop & Branch, Messrs. Bishop & Branch, Sirs: You ask me my opinion of the Guanahani Guano I puechased of you last fall.
I used the guano on my wheat, but owing to the unfavorable fail for the growth of wheat, it would be impossible for any manure to show its strength fully. However, I think the guan oa good fertilizer, from the fact, that the wheat looks as well as it does where a well known fertilizer was used that cost nearly double the money.

Respectfully,

A. G. JORDAN

Petersburg, Va., December 16th, 1873.

WM. R. GRIFFIIH, General Agent of the Guanahani Guano Company, Dear Sir: In reply to your enquiry about the action of the Guanahani Guano on my wheat crop, I would say, up to the present time it is looking very well.

SAMUEL H. JONES,
Prince George County, Va.

Broad Run Station, Fauquier County, Va., December 4th, 1873. Broad Run Station, Fauquier County, Va., December 4th, 1878.

Dear Sir: I left one row without your fertilizer, and used it on the next row. I used at the rate of 200 pounds to the acre. I had the corn carefully gathered separate, and found the result as follows: From the Guano row I shelled one bushel and nearly a half gallon; from the row without guano I got a half bushel and not quite a quart; making fully double where I used guano. The growth of stalk was not proportionately heavy—the strength seemed to go to the grain. I think it an excellent Spring fertilizer. The land I tried it on was quite thin.

Yours, &c., Yours, &c., A. D. SMITH.

Poplar Mount, Greensville County, Va., December 17th, 1873.

Mesers. Rowlett & Tannor,
Gentlemen: Yours of the 15th is received. You ask "How I like the Guanahani Guano, so far?" Guano, so far?"

In reply I have to say that I used five bags last fall, experimentally. I applied four bags to wheat at the rate of 200 pounds to the acre. I used the same quantity (200 pounds) on winter oats. The wheat was not sown until about the 20th of October, but has already a healthy, vigorous blade. The present indications lead me to believe that it is decidedly superior to any of the super-phosphates.

The winter oats we e sown the last of September. In the application to this crop, I have, in consequence of earlier seeding, a better opportunity of observing the effect of the Guanahani Guano. Here it is most marked and decided. It reminds me of former days, when, for a moderate outlay of money, the farmer purchased the pure Chincha Island, (unadulterated) Peruvian Guano.

I wish to try some of this Guano next year on cotton and tobacco.

I am, very truly yours,

GEORGE W. FIELE.

The Company recommend an application of from 200 to 250 pounds per acre, but not over the larger amount. As it will be impossible to bring but few thousand tons to this country in time for the spring irade, orders must be sent at an early day to secure it.

Serious Riot in the City-The Steamer Arapiles Leaking-Arrival of Santa Anna in Havana.

HAVANA, Feb. 14.—A mob of sev eral hundred men marched towards the Captain General's palace last evening, demanding the government to send into the field entire batallions of volunteers with their own officers instead of one-tenth of a batalion as ordered in Javellors recent decrees. The mounted police dispersed the rioters. No casualties. The Captain General to-day quartered a detachment of gensdarmes in the barracks opposite the Palace. The police have arrested Saturno Mortinez, editor of the Union, a workingman's Journal, and a Priest named Castro. Both were sent to Morro Castle. They are known to be strong Republicans, and it is reported they have been connected with yesterday's demonstration. The stated draft will be carried out within twenty days. The city is quiet, but further trouble is feared.

The Consular agent of U.S. at barracco officially denies the truth of the report that the steamer Kansas took soundings of the habor while recently lying at that port. The Arapiles is leaking badly, and will probably go to Martinque to be docked. Santa Ana arrived in here yester-day from Nassau en route to Mexico. He returns to Mexico under Lerdos proclamation of amnesty, but will take no port in Mexican politics.

Congressional—The Spencer-Sykes Contested Election Case—The Cheap Transportation Question. WASHINGTON, Feb. 14-SENATE. Committee on Privileges and Elections, this morning, decided in the matter of charges affecting the election of Senator Spencer, to proceed therewith upon documentary evidence furnished, and if held advisable during the progress of the investigation to summon witnesses, the counsel for both Spencer and Sykes were heard, the former advocating favoring an oral investigation. The cheap transportation advocates have had a full day in the House. Bell, of Georgia, delivered an exhaustive argument in favor of water transportion and in advocacy of his bill, granting aid to the Atlantic and Great Western Canal, he was followed by Mr. Clemments, of Illinois, who also urged the necessity of water transportion to the people of the West, as a relief to their present distressed condition which grew out of the fact of their unability to reach a market. Both of these gentlemen urged that the true policy of good government was to afford the best means for the development of new industrial interest, and that no pretence of a false National economy should be permitted to stand in the way of the just demands of a suffering people Mr. Fort, of Illinois, argued in favor of an increase of National currency

The defeated Liberal candidate received 2,720 votes. Sullivan and Cullen, Home Ruler candidates, have been chosen by immense majorities to represent the county of South Ireland. They defeated Chichester Fortescuge and Matthew O'rielly, Liberals, who sat in the last Parliament. Six Home Rulers contested two seats for the county of
